Release Info: For June Issue of Brent Magazine

Event Title: Brent Makes Music 2008

Organisers: Brent Music Service (A Brent Council Service)

Event Dates: 7.30 pm on Wednesday, 2nd July 2008, Wembley Arena

Event Summary: Brent Makes Music 2008 is another exciting opportunity to see the talented youth of Brent perform in this high profile event at one of the world's key concert venues. This year Brent Makes Music 2008 is embracing the theme of "The World in One Borough" and brings a musical tour of the globe to the stage. Tickets are available from the Wembley Arena Box Office priced at Adults £8.00 (£12.00 on the night), Children & Concessions £5.00 (£8.00 on the night). Further details can be found at the official event website at www.BrentMakesMusic.com.

Further Info: Following the overwhelming success of Brent Makes Music 2007, Brent Music Service have formulated yet another extravaganza for the general public to enjoy. Over 1,300 of Brent's young vocal and instrumental musicians will be performing an eclectic programme to embrace this year's theme of "The World in One Borough".

The evening will feature many of Brent's school choirs, the winner of Brent Young Musician of the Year 2008, David Wong (clarinet) and performances from the various Brent Music Service ensembles.

"Brent Makes Music 2008 - The World in One Borough" promises to offer the audience an inspiring variety of music and is set to be one of the best large-scale events brought to you by Brent Music Service to date.

Obviously, the cost of presenting this show is vast and so local businesses are encouraged to offer their assistance. With a range of advertising and promotional opportunities available, it's now possible for companies and individuals to enhance their public profile direct to their local customers, whilst helping to make a significant difference to the musical experience of Brent's youngsters. Interested organisations can learn more about the options available by visiting www.BrentMakesMusic.com or by contacting Clair Tomalin on 08700 111 556.

Head of Service, Paul Fensom noted: "We're hoping to build on last year's unquestionable success and make this another major musical landmark for the youngsters involved. We are thoroughly looking forward to bringing this year's event to Wembley Arena. The children and teachers alike all work so hard to make this an evening to remember and it will be so gratifying to see their efforts rewarded with the enjoyment from what we hope will be the largest audience yet."
