Dawn Butler MP has been the Labour MP for Brent South since May 2005 and is recognised as being a strong campaigner for young people. After learning of Brent Makes Music 2008, it seems that Dawn felt compelled to attend. Not least due to the sheer scale of the show and the significant demonstration it offers to illustrate what can be achieved when youngsters are given an opportunity and an outlet to perform.

Paul Fensom, Head of Brent Music Service commented: "All the performers, the music service, teachers and ensemble leaders put a huge amount of time and dedication into the preparation of this event, so it is particularly rewarding when these efforts are more widely recognised and we are able to welcome distinguished guests to the audience."

Dawn Butler's recent attendance confirmation is added to the already impressive VIP list which hopes to include a number of senior Councillors and the local Mayor.

Tickets are available from the Wembley Arena Box Office (Tel: 020 8782 5505) priced at Adults £8.00 (£12.00 on the night), Children & Concessions £5.00 (£8.00 on the night). Further details can be found at the official event website at www.BrentMakesMusic.com.
